

The Office of the President and the Office of Health Policy and Legislative Affairs present

UTMB Health Policy Dialogues

Co-sponsored by the UTMB School of Nursing

“Saving Children: The Moral Legacy of Physicians and Nurses in Resistance During the Nazi Era”

GUEST SPEAKER

Cheyenne Martin, PhD, RN

Rebecca and Edwin Gale Professor,
UTMB School of Nursing and Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences

Wednesday,
Sept. 26, 2018

Noon–1 p.m.
Levin Hall Dining Room

Lunch provided (begins serving at 11:30 a.m.)

FREE LECTURE

Open to all UTMB students, faculty and staff, and members of the public.

Join Dr. Martin for a thought-provoking discussion of this remarkable legacy and relevance for contemporary clinical practice and health policy.

RSVP to Rebecca Trout Unbehagen, rltrout@utmb.edu

To join the conference via a Polycom video conference equipped room please video dial conference ID 4091104. To view the broadcast via a PC please click here:

<https://hdstream.utmb.edu/VEMWeb/Widgets/EmbedPlayerControllerWidget.html?ver=6.3.7.6&autoplay=true&contentID=6>.
For technical assistance over the phone please call the IS Video Operations Control room at 409-747-9037.

utmb Health