APPENDIX A DISTRICT DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

AREA OF REQUIRED CONGRUENCE. Districts are required to adopt these disciplinary procedures without change. There is potential legal liability associated with disciplining of members and officers and these procedures have been drafted to minimize this potential. The procedures are also designed to provide a fair process for the officer or director. These procedures only cover disciplining of officers. Any potential grounds for disciplining of a member shall be referred to TNA.*

A. PURPOSE AND INTENT

The purpose of these procedures is to insure that action to remove an officer or director is conducted in accordance with accepted requirements of due process including reasonable notice of charges, notice of hearing, the right to confront witnesses, an opportunity to refute all charges and an impartial hearing.

B. BYLAWS AUTHORITY

1. Disciplinary proceedings are authorized and governed by Article IV of the District's Bylaws. All disciplinary proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the requirements of that Article and Articles II.2.c and IV.1 of the TNA Bylaws.

2. Disciplinary action against a member is not authorized but rather any grounds for disciplinary action against a member shall be referred to TNA as required by Article II.

C. CAUSES FOR DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Grounds for removal of an officer or director are (1) misconduct of office and/or (2) failure to fulfill obligations imposed by the District's Bylaws.

D. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Person having a conflict of interest or other bias that could interfere with impartial decision-making shall not be appointed to any decision-making body or participate in the making of any decision. Conflict of interest and bias include, but are not limited to, having filed the complaint being decided, having been involved in the incident resulting in the complaint, having a close personal relationship to any party to the complaint, or any other involvement that would prevent a person from making a fair and impartial decision.

E. CONFIDENTIALITY

All persons participating in the disciplinary proceedings must hold information pertaining to the case in confidence. These matters should not be discussed outside the proceedings. Failure to maintain confidentiality may result in legal liability.

F. REMOVAL PROCEEDINGS AGAINST AN OFFICER OR DIRECTOR

1. Filing of Complaint. A complaint may be filed only by a member and shall be in writing and signed. The complaint shall specify the alleged action of misconduct of office and the provision of the bylaws which are alleged to have been violated. The complaint shall describe behavior that is being complained of and shall identify the time and place if possible. Supporting documents may be submitted with the complaint. The complaint shall be filed with the president of the District unless the complaint involves the president. In that case the complaint shall be filed with the president-elect, or the next officer in charge, of the District who shall take any action required to be taken by the president under these procedures.

2. Notification of TNA. The president shall notify TNA of receipt of the complaint and the final disposition.

3. Appointment of Investigative Panel. The president shall appoint two members to meet and review the complaint.

4. Notification of the Complaint and Answer. If the investigative panel determines that there is a possible violation of a duty imposed by the District's Bylaws and/or misconduct of office, it shall notify the president of its findings who in turn shall notify the officer or director by certified mail, return receipt requested, of the nature of the complaint and that the allegations if true constitute a possible violation of duties imposed by the Bylaws and/or misconduct of office. The officer or director shall have the right to submit any rebuttal statement or documents within 15 days of notification of the complaint.

5. Formal Charges. The investigative panel shall review any information submitted by the officer or director and if it determines there is merit to the complaint, it shall identify the provisions of the Bylaws that have allegedly been violated and/or misconduct of office that has occurred and notify the president of its findings. Unless the president, with the advice and consent of the Executive committee, or other officers, decides that the filing of formal charges are not in the best interests of the association, the president shall prepare formal charges and send them to the officer or director by certified mail, return receipt requested. The formal charges shall state the facts that allegedly occurred and the specific provisions of the Bylaws that were allegedly violated. A copy of these procedures shall be sent with the formal charges.

6. Appointment of Hearing Panel. Within 10 days of sending the formal charges to the officer or director, the president with the advice and consent of the Executive Committee, or other officers, shall appoint a Hearing Panel consisting of 5 members. The president shall designate one of the members as chair. Members having a conflict of interest or otherwise biased shall not be appointed. The two members serving on the Investigative Panel shall not serve on the Hearing Panel but may function as investigators/witnesses for the panel.

7. Setting and Notice of Hearing. Within 7 days of the panel's appointment, the chair shall schedule a hearing for the complaint and notify the officer or director of its date by certified mail, return receipt requested. The hearing shall be not less than 20 days nor more than 45 days from the time the notice is mailed unless otherwise mutually agreed.

8. Conducting of Hearing. The chair shall preside at the hearing. Members of the panel may ask questions of witnesses. The officer or director shall have the right to have a representative, including an attorney. The officer or director shall have the right to present evidence and to question witnesses. The complainant shall have the right to be present at the hearing, to have a representative including an attorney, and to question witnesses. The association may have an attorney present who may question witnesses. All costs for the representation will be borne by the respective parties. Formal judicial rules of evidence shall not apply, and the chair will allow any testimony or evidence that reasonable persons would normally consider in deciding the issues in question. The chair may exclude evidence that is redundant or unduly prejudicial. Persons, other than members of the panel, witnesses and representatives of the parties shall not be permitted at the hearing. If legal representation is requested by either party, the other party will be notified and shall have the right to legal representation.

9. Issuance of Decision. Within 15 days of the hearing, the panel shall notify the officer or director, the complainant, and the president of its decision. The written decision shall include factual findings, a statement of the reasons for the panel's decision, and a statement of the precise discipline, if any, being imposed. Only members of the panel present during the entire hearing may participate in the decision. A minimum of three members of the panel must vote for the decision. Notification of the officer or director and complainant shall be by certified mail, return receipt requested.

10. Appeal. The accused officer or director aggrieved by a decision of the panel may appeal to the District membership by submitting a written request for an appeal to the president within 15 days of receipt of notification of the panel's decision. The request for appeal shall contain a statement of the facts and the reasons from which the appealing party based his/her appeal. Implementation of disciplinary action by the hearing board is stayed pending the outcome of the appeal. The appeal shall be heard at the next membership meeting that occurs at least 10 days from when the appeal was requested. The appeal may be scheduled at another meeting by agreement of the president and accused officer or director. The president shall preside at the appeal. Any member with a conflict of interest or otherwise unable to render an impartial decision shall not participate in the appeal. The appeal shall be held in a closed session of the membership. The officer or director shall have the right of representation including an attorney at the appeal. An attorney for the District may also be present and participate. The members shall decide only if the decision of the Hearing Panel was justified by the evidence and shall not consider additional evidence unless such evidence was not known at the time of the hearing before the panel or other procedures are agreed to by a majority vote. Decision shall be by majority vote of those present and voting provided at least a majority of a quorum necessary to conduct official business agree to the decision. The appealing party shall be notified by certified mail, return receipt requested.
